

About The Instructor

"I find it really fulfilling working with somebody who's going after a dream...when the light bulbs go on and they start to think and sing outside the box... that's my passion!"

C-A's been in and around the entertainment industry for over 20 years. Since 1977, she's studied, competed and won awards in many major local and provincial vocal competitions. She's been through the commercial music program at Capilano College, toured extensively with many pop and rock bands, has a background in recording as well as credits for music direction in theatre productions. Throughout the course of her career, C-A's desire to inspire and educate others has taken her on a perpetual journey of discovery - from anatomy, physiology and psychology - to the problems of vocal techniques and methods, including areas of music, acoustics and phonetics.

"...A friend of mine told me about The Voice Studio & C-A's different approach. At first I was nervous that my style would change, but not only did it change for the better, I now have a new understanding about my abilities. I've brought my singing up to greater levels and am now equipped with techniques that I can add to my current style! Going to her has been the best thing that I've ever done for my voice. You rock C-A!"

Modern Mechanics

The voice studio provides the most exciting, unique concepts in vocal instruction today. In a relaxed, entertaining and educational atmosphere, I combine the art and the science of voice to help you develop a more versatile and expressive singing instrument.

The Right Tools

The voice studio is dedicated to consistently providing the highest quality instruction, coaching and support to its singers. Providing tools for each individual to reach above and beyond their expectations and to make possible their full potential.

"C-A is an enthusiastic and insightful instructor. I've completely transformed the way I use my voice for acting! I now have clear access to emotions and previously untapped energy. C-A has instilled in me a love for music I never knew ran so deep...not only did I improve beyond my wildest dreams, I've just recorded my first album! I now consider myself a triple threat."

Get Set for Success!

The Voice Studio will make it possible for each student to be thoroughly exposed to the methods required for mastering the art of voice.

I will help to expand your abilities by setting step-by-step goals that allow you to experience success and to feel growing confidence.

Areas of study include:

- Vocal Health
- Speech development
- Breath management
- Attack
- Range extension
- Register transition
- Resonance
- Strength and flexibility
- Stamina
- Stylistic skills
- Abuse and overuse
- Smoothing out the dead spots...and much...much more

Customized Coaching

The voice studio provides expertise for all levels of experience. I will assess, design and tailor each individual's program to take your voice to new levels of excellence.

"In 4 words: knowledgeable, enthusiastic, disciplined, inspiring. Her wisdom and encouragement still rings in my ears every time I record a vocal or perform live. Her lessons have given me the tools and confidence to apply them consistently. Whether you're a beginner or professional, her method works! I've been highly recommending her and I'll continue to do so."

Professional Already?

The scheduling demands of successful vocalists (travel, rehearsal, promotion, performance) can make it more likely than the average person to develop some unique vocal difficulties. At the voice studio, I will help to eliminate any vocal habits that may have developed such as overuse, abuse or misuse to ensure that your voice stays in top shape!
