

Seized Luxury Homes Launches Real Estate Auction Site

Seized Luxury Homes offers members exclusive bidding access on cheap luxury homes at up to 90% off.

Pittsburg, PA March 12, 2007 -- Seized Luxury Homes recently announced the launch of its website SeizedLuxuryHomes.com, which provides members with exclusive access to buy government seized luxury properties throughout the US at a fraction of the cost of the listed value. It is the widest and most comprehensive database online, offering members the chance to shop at local and online government auctions. Financing is also available. Currently there are over 300,000 listings nationwide.

Seized Cars & Homes Ultra Cheap 90% Off !

Members can buy multi-family, single homes, land, real estate investment property, condos and commercial property. In addition, cars, trucks, SUVs, boats, vessels and personal property items are available and are frequently sold at up to 90% off the original value.

Thousands of homes all over the US are seized on a daily basis by various federal, state and local government and law enforcement agencies as well as banks and lending institutions. Their primary goal is to auction off these homes and items in a hurry because of the substantial expense that would be incurred to track and maintain records.

In the past, only investors and realtors with special licenses could access these auctions. But because of the Internet, things have changed significantly. Big business has saturated the market, which in turn has made it impossible for many of these auction centers to become known.

These auctions sometimes have only a few people attending, which allows for homes to be sold at bargain prices. SeizedLuxuryHomes.com has implemented a simple and easy system for its members to utilize. This serves as an excellent opportunity for those who are looking for investment in real estate. Members find this the ideal method of attaining the house of their dreams for a fraction of the cost of even a typically affordable home.

SeizedLuxuryHomes.com utilizes an easy and efficient user-friendly interface for their website and offers dedicated customer support and help features. Membership is a one-time fee of $34.95, with no additional fees.
